Get Paid to Speak Up

Receive a $20 Safeway food card to speak your mind about HIV services

The Ryan White Planning Council, operating under the auspices of Maricopa County, is offering $20 Safeway gift certificates to HIV positive people that have not seen a doctor in more than one year who complete a confidential survey to help improve local services. The program will run through the end of July 2005.

Maricopa County Supervisor Mary Rose Wilcox, District 5, says, "It is vital that HIV positive people are aware of services available to them for the improvement of their health. These surveys offer an opportunity to give feedback about county services."

If the survey is conducted well by the Ryan White Planning Council, they can fulfill grant application imperatives that would result in receiving federal funding to supplement Maricopa county services.

To qualify, respondents must be HIV positive and must not have seen a doctor in one year or more. The surveys are confidential and can be completed in-person, by phone or online. They can be conducted in English or Spanish. Please call for details and to set up an appointment: (800) 411-4399 X 25.
